

TRANSFORM

---

LADIES CONFERENCE

JL Gerhardt is the author of five books including Look to Love: A Better Way to Read the Bible and Prayer In Practice, two Bible studies (Philippians & Nehemiah), and the bi-weekly email essay The Goodness. She teaches how to read the Bible to fall in love with God via her podcast, Look to Love.

Gerhardt partners with her husband Justin at Hazefire Studios, a nonprofit devoted to expanding the intersection of story and worship. JL and Justin also lead The Storied Family and The Storied Marriage, workshops designed to help families and couples discover their identity and purpose in the context of God's story. The Gerhardts homeschool their two teenage daughters in the hills of Northwest Arkansas.

JL has an MA from the University of Alabama in Huntsville. She's a former college English lecturer, newspaper journalist, and storytelling minister.

She loves hiking, reading, kayaking, listening to her husband play guitar, and sitting beside a window with a Bible and a mug of black coffee.