

TRANSFORM

LADIES CONFERENCE

Debbie Dupuy and her husband, Arvy, worship at the Stoney Point Church of Christ, in Florence Alabama. She is a popular ladies day speaker and Bible teacher and author. She has taught ladies across the U.S. and internationally. She has been a guest speaker at Polishing the Pulpit, the Challenge Youth conference (CYC), Faulkner University, Heritage Christian University and Freed-Hardeman University. Debbie has also conducted Ladies Conferences in the Fiji Islands, Western Samoa, and Haiti. She also teaches ladies Bible classes at Heritage Christian University, and at her congregation throughout the year. Debbie enjoys writing, collecting and finding vintage furniture and antiques, reading, shopping with her girls and granddaughters, and collecting turtles from around the world. She also operates a small business, The Vintage Soul, buying and selling antiques, vintage furniture and home accessories. She is the author of: "It's a Red Letter Day", How the Words of Jesus Impact Lives Today and "The Shepherd's Daughter" - an up-close and personal look at the Good Shepherd, based in Psalm Twenty-Three.