LADIES CONFERENCE

Pam Lenz lives in Sheffield, Alabama with her fire-fighter husband, Terry, and her high school son, Caleb. She works as a middle school counselor for a neighboring town. Pam is revived by her involvement in teaching ladies' classes at Tuscumbia Church of Christ, teaching teen girls at Maywood Christian Camp and Freed Hardeman's Horizons, and spending time with the grand-girl (and her parents too) that calls her "Pammy". One of the many reasons Pam loves leading women in worship and song is because it is the best seat in the house!
