LADIES CONFERENCE

Laura Jenkins has served as a ministerial counselor at Mt. Juliet Church of Christ since 2010. She graduated from Freed-Hardeman University in 2006 and received her Masters of Social Work from the University of Tennessee in 2010. She has spent over 17 years studying and working within the psychology and social work fields. She and her husband Philip have two children, Lucas (age 12) and Holley (age 11). She has written several books: Thought Garden, Thought Garden Teen Edition, Thought Garden Children's edition and Let it Be: When Grief Unravels Your Thought Garden. These books are designed to help people cultivate a thought life that is firmly planted in God's truth.
