

TRANSFORM

---

LADIES CONFERENCE

Hannah Bradford grew up in Hazel Green, Alabama, right outside of Huntsville. Her hobbies include talking constantly and singing endlessly. Thankfully, the Lord found a place for her hobbies to be used in the involvement of her church youth group, ladies ministries, and the Lads to Leaders organization. Beginning at age eight, she participated in speech, songs of praise, puppets, and many other sections of the Lads to Leaders program that molded her to use her talents as a part of her ministry from then on out. Hannah, her husband Ben and their two children Ellie and Peyton worship with the Tuscumbia Church of Christ in Tuscumbia, AL. She is the author of the teenage girls Christian study, Tuesday Nights at Amber's. Her ministry overflows into her day job as she is the director of performing arts at Muscle Shoals High School. She loves producing musicals, choir concerts, and show choir performances.